

Oral presentation: Talk about your favourite song, film, book, poem, ...

A. Subject:

B. Getting ready:

B1. Sources: Give the name and address of the websites where you found relevant information.

⇒ Website - www.website.com/blahblah/ : a biography of the artist, a review of the film, etc.

B2. Collect, gather and group elements from your sources. The chat must contain at least 30 (relevant!) elements.

Nouns	verbs	Phrases and structures

C. Organizing the presentation:

C1. INTRODUCE - WHAT (genre etc), WHO (director, writer etc), WHEN (released = sortie → film / published → book)

C2. SUMMARIZE (The story, the plot (l'intrigue), the heart of the problem, the core of question, the main issue, topic).

C3. COMMENT

⇒ CLASSIFY the different themes

This

⇒ INTERPRET the vision of the author

• By doing this	The singer	wants to	show that...
	The director		suggest that ...
	The actor	intends to	indicate that
The journalist	make us feel that ..
The writer	make us realize that ..
The author	wants	make us understand that ..
		the reader to feel that ...
		the viewer to realize that ...
		the audience to understand ...
		us to ⇒ REACT by stating your personal opinion.

• What I find the most	striking	in	this is that incredible interesting	about ironical ridiculous impressive threatening unpleasant

• What strikes me the most	in	this	the fact	that about the idea

• It makes me think of / It reminds me of / This obviously refers to, alludes to ...

• To me / To my mind / In my opinion

C4. CONCLUDE

To sum up, In a word, in short, in brief, to conclude, in conclusion